Homeowners Guide

Our Mission: Repairing homes, revitalizing communities, rebuilding lives.

What We Do

Throughout the year, our program installs safety grab bars, wheelchair ramps, and other modifications that improve accessibility and independence. In addition, we provide assistance with critical repairs, such as water heaters, furnaces, and roof leaks.

We also coordinate hundreds of volunteers to provide painting, yard clean-up, and debris removal to homes like yours throughout the South Bay.

Who Qualifies for Assistance?

Rebuilding Together Silicon Valley serves low-income, older adults and persons with disabilities who are not able to maintain and repair their homes. To qualify for assistance, you must own your own home and lack the resources or ability to do the work yourself. To qualify, you must complete an application that will demonstrate that you meet the eligibility requirements.

Who Pays for Repairs?

Rebuilding Together Silicon Valley partners with local companies, churches, governmental entities, and individual donors to cover the cost for all repairs. Through these partnerships we are able to provide all repairs at no charge to you.

What Repairs Will Be Considered?

Priority repairs that have a direct benefit to the health and safety of your household.

Following are examples of common repairs:

- Water heaters and furnace(s)
- Door and window repairs
- Wall and ceiling repairs
- Flooring repairs
- Debris removal
- Painting
- Basic plumbing
- Basic electrical
- Basic carpentry
- Roof repairs/replacements
- Safety Modifications (ex: grab bars, handrails, ramps)

RTSV is limited in the type of work we can complete based on funding and volunteers available. RTSV does not do structural repairs such as foundations, framing, seismic retrofitting, new construction, or room additions. We also do not work on projects that include repairs that were done without proper permits.

If your home is selected, information about you, your family, and your repair needs will be shared anonymously with potential sponsors and others.
